Day 6: SKINCARE100.COM Is Available

---

Hi

The SKINCARE100.COM web business is available.

1. Are you really giving away a targeted $10 domain name for free?

Answer: Yes we are. We know how tough it is to find good domain names. We have had a bit of experience with buying them, so we now help the process by actually giving you a domain name that has a chance of success.

2. What can we do with the site? Who will put my name on it?

Answer: We will edit the site for you with your name and payment information. It will be 100% ready to take orders. You will receive your login information to control the site. It is all yours. You are free to edit it any way you wish.

Here is the link to secure SKINCARE100.COM
